LEVEKI ATU KE HE HIAPO

Tulou atu dear Friend, Tulou know this cloth is layers of care selfless, generous, consistent, humble. care it is softened fibres of inner plant flesh once and still the pathway of nourishing waters, to and from heaven turned hands of green.

 its creation offers wisdom for living. makes spaces of healing. embraces meditative lines of learning. the muscles of many given. beaten together again and again. again Tulou this cloth is layers of fragile, mysterious, ancient and unfinished stories warm, loving, life and death embracing. story transforming in the balance of cleansing waters, of joyful sun, of trust & truth, of time around and around. many songs sung. many lives touched. it is treasure to many and trauma for some laughter ripples out and tears flow in. an ocean of visual language.
 physically translated in many forms. temporary. poetically a lifelong dance with 'enough' this cloth an invitation to search, to exchange, to struggle, to serve, to celebrate and in honouring others, participate. shaping its fondly practiced patterns, its rhythms, its harmonies not ours to each hold away, to own alone, to claim for gain, or maintain... the same. separated, defined, controlled, lifeless, poisoned. Tulou.
 in fragments of tata to fullness of tapestry... our many cloths are an understanding, an intention, a valued burden of grace, a patient prayer marked with layers of memory, responding. forgiving. moving and changing declaring our dependence to nurture, to love Tulou atu. Tulou.
 unfold its care courageously.
